

United Way Day of Action 2011

Tuesday, June 21, 2011
10:00 A.M.

Born Learning Trail at Appomattox River Regional Park

1052 River Road
Prince George, VA

Directions:

From Hopewell:

From Mesa Drive turn onto River Road and go 1.6 miles to the Riverside Regional Jail entrance sign on the right. Turn right at the sign and 0.8 miles to the park entrance. Turn left at the Buses Only entrance to get to the Pavilion.

From Interstate 95:

Take exit 54 to Temple Avenue and turn right. Go 3.4 miles, crossing the Appomattox River, and proceed to the second traffic light past the river. Turn left onto River Road and go 3.4 miles, passing the federal reformatory, to the Riverside Regional Jail sign, on the left. Turn left and proceed 0.8 miles to the park entrance. Turn left at the Buses Only entrance to get to the Pavilion.

United Way of Hopewell-Prince George invites you to participate in our first Born Learning Trail.

The Trail is a path of nine learning stations, with activity signs that provide fun, easy activities for children, parents and caregivers to enjoy together. The Trail is geared towards children aged five and under, but people of all ages can enjoy the trail.

The Born Learning Trail promotes the importance of early childhood education and the United Way Day of Action introduces the Born Learning Trail to the community.

Thanks to our Partners:

Prince George County and Hopewell Builders Supply

United Way of Hopewell-Prince George

